Fire in New York and Loss of Life---Seducer Shot---Murderers Hanged Other Late Items

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—This morning a fire broke out on the second floor of a tenement house at No. 80 Canon street. The tenement was occupied by at least twelve families, and the excitement was terrible. Mary Bahiska, who lives on the third floor, jumped from a window and severely injured herself internally, while four members of a family named Batzkie living on the top floor, suffocated by smoke. The father, Joseph Batzkie, endeavored in every way to save his family, but finding his efforts fruitless, rushed to a window, threw himself out and was picked up dead.

Patrick J. Lynch, a fireman, whilst endeavoring to save the inmates, had both hands severely burned. Damage to the property is small.

LATER.

Lynch the fireman three times reached the fourth floor and tried to bear out the unconscious women and children. Each time he was driven back and finally made his own escape by a tottering fire escape. In his decent he inhaled flames and was borne to a hospital, where he lay dying at midday.

When the cries of the neighborhood brought the police and fireman to the house, Botzkie was seen rushing wildly to the window of his bedroom and returning as if indeavyring to drag something with him. Smoke drove him back, but he returned again. This time a sheet of flame shot into his face, and with a desparing cry he seized the window frame and sprang out. The distance was not so great, but in his descent his feet were caught by the lintel of the window below, and he was turned head downward; thus he struck the pavement!

When the firemen gained the top floor, four human bodies, closely huddled together on a bed in a little side room, were found half conscious and struggling for breath. Trying to arouse herself, with the cries of her husband ringing out from the window, whither he had made two ineffectual attempts to come to her assistance, the wife had rolled upon the floor and reached her children's rooms, her first thought being for them. There the smoke had overcome her, and with her last strength feeling about for her boys, she had fallen upon them and died there. Their cheeks were slightly scorched, otherwise the fire had not touched them—the smoke had done the work effectually.

A family named Cohen lived in the building, and yesterday Mrs. Cohen was observed carrying out several large bundles. About 7 o'clock last night Cohen, wife and the children left the house, the adults carrying large bundles. Cohen was arrested at an insurance office, where he had a policy of seven hundred dollars on his property. His wife was found at 105 Hester street, and locked up.

CRIMINAL TELEGRAMS.

A Seducer Shot by his Victim's Brother---The Buford Trial.

CINCINNATI, November 14.—A special states that James P. Ferguson, killed James H. Coombs, on Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky., last evening. Ferguson came to that town to compel Coombs to marry his sister whom he had seduced. The latter refused, and Ferguson brought a shot gun loaded and deliberately shot Coombs.

A Frankfort Ky. special states that during the Buford trial in was discovered that the law in the general statutes providing for the appointment of special Judges differed from that adopted by the Constitutional Convention and signed by the delegates as appears in the debates of the Convention. A search being made for the engrossed copy for the Constitution to verify the law, no trace could be found in the office of the State Secretary, and there is some doubt now whether Kentucky has any authentic constitution at all.

Hanlan and Courtney Again.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 14.—Articles were agreed to by Hanlan and Courtney late last night to row a five mile race, two and and half miles out and return, in their best boats for $6,000, offered by the Hop Bitters Company, the race to be rowed on the Potomac near Washington, Tuesday December 9th, between 2 and 5 o'clock, p. m., subject to postponement by a referee on account of weather. Blakie will be referee. If there is any interference with the race the referee may order it over again on the first favorable day. Hanlan, from the word "go," waives all rights in the $6,000 which shall go to the winner, as decided by the referee. If either man fails to start, Hanlan does not waive his claim. The Bitters Company deny Hanlan's claim, but in consideration of the above agreement, will place the money in the bank to be paid to the winner. Both men expect to go to Washington early next week. Hanlan will be the guest of Analastaus and Courtney of Potomacs.

"Big Injun Heaps."

DENVER, Col., Nov. 14.—Dispatches from Los Pinos state that Gen. Hatch, of the commission, has arrived.

The hostile chiefs, with the exception of Jack, are reported to have gone.

The Nintah reservation are at Los Pinos, and are willing to surrender.

Gen. Hatch peremptorily refuses to come and meet the commission. It is determined, almost beyond doubt, that he led the hostiles in Thornburg's fight.

Ouray held a long conference with the hostiles Tuesday night, and told them they need expect no mercy.

Johnson is at the agency, and says if he has done anything wrong he is willing to expiate his crime—is willing to hang, if necessary.

Gone Home.

GALNESTON, Nov. 14.—A News special from Sherman says: "Julius Pottle was hanged to-day for the murder of Joseph Bremar in Davison in January, Six thousand persons witnessed the exeecution."

Murderers Hanged.

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 14—Charles Drews and Franklin Stacher were hanged here to-day, for the murder of Joseph Raber at Indiantown Gap, last December.

Resigned.

ROME, Nov. 14.—General Cioldini, Minister to France, has resigned.

Dennis Copper's Remains.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The decision in the famous Copper's case has been reached and the remains of the Free Mason are ordered to receive the sepulchre beside those of his mother in Cavalry Catholic Cemetery. The case was based upon the refusal of the superintendent of the Catholic Cemetry grounds to allow the interment of the body of Coppers. After assuming various phases it finally came before Judge Westbrook, whose decision is a lengthy one and he reviews the case and bases his decision upon the fact that the sale of the cemetery lot is an absolute transfer.

Sale of Mines.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 14.—The sale of the Johnnie Bull and Domingo mines, of Silver Cliff, was consummated yesterday. W. F. Shaefer, W. M. Lent, ex-United State Senators Dorsey and McDonald, and associates, all of New York, are the supposed purchasers. It is supposed that the price paid is from seven hundred and fifty to eight hundred thousand dollars.

CETYWAYO PHOTOGRAPHED.

The Camera Scares Him, and He Won't be Taken with His Wife.

Having placed everything in readiness, we informed the King through his interpreter that we were ready, and received the answer that the King was going to sleep and did not wish to be disturbed. After a while we could hear him speak, so we once more informed him that we were waiting for him. He did not seem inclined to do so, and Captain Poole thought it best to give him some inducement to do so, which was accomplished by catching a fish. This made him come out at once, and after some palaver the King was persuaded to seat himself near the compass, with his back against the rudder wheel.

He appeared to be very nervous, and requested that it might be done at once in order to have it over. He seemed to dread the camera, and did not like the look of the lens. We succeeded, however, in getting our first negative. He was more at ease when he found that it was done without his being hurt, but in order to show him what we were doing, Commodore Caffyn showed him a photo of Dabulamanza, at which he seemed pleased, and at once disencumbered himself of his blanket to show his figure, of which he appears to be very proud. We succeeded in taking a second double negative, and then he sternly refused to have any more taken. We were at that time not certain of success, as the ship was rolling, it was raining all the while, and our negatives were finished only partially, in order to obtain as many negatives as possible while the King was in a good mood.

After that came the King's wives; they appeared eager to be photographed and, after they had been placed in position, we requested the King to sit in the centre of the group, which he declined to do, saying that he had to undergo it alone, and they would have to do the same. Upon his being told that we wished to have him in the middle, he answered that we could cut the photos and then place him wherever we liked. He would not sit again, so we contented ourselves with taking two more double negatives of his wives, while he was smoking his cigarette, and this finished our days work, leaving the King on deck trying his hand at fish-catching.

ROBBED ON BROAWAY.

A Gentleman has his Pocket Picked of $1,112 and a Gold Watch.

New York Star.

While standing in front of a Broadway window on Wednesday, John Clayson, from Bucks county, Pa., felt a sharp tug at his watch chain and a hand in his pocket. Instantly too well dressed young men bolted out of the crowd amid the cries of "there goes the thieves." Both thieves made good their escape though hotly pursued, one of them managing to get on the elevated railway and the other getting a stage. Mr. Clayson lost his pocketbook containing $1.112 and a gold watch and chain valued at $80. The case was reported to the police.

A New Bankrupt Law Wanted.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—The New England Shoe and Leather Association met to-day to consider the proposed National bankrupt law. The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The repeal of the National bankrupt law has thrown the collection of debts under the jurisdiction of the State courts, with all their conflicting laws, the mercantile and manufacting interest of the country deem it a pressing necessity that a modified National bankrupt law should be passed by Congress; therefore,

Resolved, That the shoe and leather trade of New England favors the passage of a judicious National bankrupt law, and will use their influence to procure the enactment of the same.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to confer with the representatives from the boards of trade and other mercantile associations, and to aid if necessary, the drafting of a bill for the action of Congress.

Fighting Mad.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

FALLS OF THE NEUSE, Nov. 14.—Your paper told a "diversion"—the stars never fell, and the people are mad as everything about it. They lost a night's sleep watching for them, and the world never come to an end either, and they are mad about that. McR.

It is a plain fact that twenty-five per cent of the deaths in our cities are caused by consumption; and when we reflect that in this terible disease in its earlier stages will readily yield to a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, costing twenty-five cents, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence, or pity them for their ignorance.

Tilden's Strength.

A Washington special to the Cincinnati Enquirer, Tilden's friends here pooh-pooh the idea that he is shelved. They say that the fight he made in New York demonstrated his strength—that he made the canvass his own, and but for his personal direction and assiduity the whole ticket would have been lost.

Bayard has the pole, though, of all candidates canvassed.

HE IS AT REST.

THE BURIAL OF REV. DR. LOVICK PIERCE.

An Impressive Scene in Columbus---The Services Over the Coffin---A Good Man Gone.

Atlanta Constitution.

The mortal remains of the beloved Dr. Lovick Pierce, the great Methodist minister, have been laid to rest. He was buried last Tuesday in Columbus, beside the ashes of his wife, and according to his oft expressed wish.

Of the manner and circumstances of his death we have only these added details: He died on Sunday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock, and not on Monday morning as the telegraph announced it. He was surrounded in his last hours by many of his relatives and some of his warmest and dearest friends. For several hours before his death his weakness and prostration were so complete that he was unable to speak to any one about him. There were no struggles and no agonizing scenes; he died peacefully, even unconsciously, and passed in this way to that perfect rest and happiness that were awaiting him on the other shores.

THE FUNERAL CEREMONIES

were held in Columbus in St. Luke's church, which was erected under his direction, he laying out the grounds and planting the tress now surrounding it. The concourse that attended tne exercises was one of the largest and most deeply affected assemblages ever gathered in Columbus to perform the obsequies of the dead. It was an immense throng of men, who found a melancholy satisfaction in the opportunity to honor the memory of one so illustrious in the service of God.

From the accounts of the funeral ceremonies we give the following points of interest:

Rev. J. S. Key, D. D., of Macon, gave some points in the biography of the deceased, relating to his character and his work in the ministry. Rev. B. F. Breedlove read the first lesson from the 90th Psalm; Rev. J. O. A. Clarke read the 739th hymn, which was sang; Rev. J. P. Duncan, the blind preacher, then offered a touching prayer; Rev. G. G. N. McDonnell read the second lesson from 1 Corinthians, 15th verse; Rev. J W. Hinton read the 737th hymn, which was sung.

The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Atticus G. Haygood, president of Emory college and editor of the Macon Christian Advocate. The text was chosen in the 13th chapter of Acts, 36th and 37th verses:

"For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption."

"But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption."

The sermon was not a studied eulogy upon the deceased, but a heart-spoken and beautifully eloquent tribute to his Christian character and labors.

The news of the death of this venerable father of Methodism has been received everywhere with expressions of sorrow. Wherever he was known he was admired and loved. The press have given utterance to the sympathies of the people in this bereavement of the family and the loss to the cause of Christ's church.

GREENE.

WILLOW GREEN, Nov. 13.—The weather is as dry and hot as it was last July.

The crops are nearly all housed.

Trade is good. Cotton is worth 10½ cents, and the people are better than common.

My friend Charlie Andrews was married to Miss Annie Parrott on Tuesday night. All of Lenoir county.

The political news of this county is at a low ebb.

Dr. F. M. Rountree lost his gin house by fire better than a week ago. Accidental.

Rev. W. H. Call will preach at Ormond's Chapel Sunday night at 11 o'clock; last round for the conference year.

Ned Carmond, Esq., of Pitt county, has been very low with a carbuncle on the back of the neck, but he is now improving under the treatment of Drs. O'Haganu and Hornaday.

Diphtheria is yet raging to some extent in this section. E. H. H.

GUILFORD.

GREENSBORO Nov. 13.—The following is the proceedings of the Young Men's Christian Association during the week of prayer:

Monday at 7 a. m., prayer meeting.

Monday night.—The subject was, the young man that came running to Christ and yet was not saved. Also the lesson of Cain and Abel. Services by Rev. A. D. Betts.

Tuesday, at 7 o'clock, a. m., prayer meeting.

Tuesday night.—The lesson of Hezekiah and his good reign, as compared with that of the wicked reign of his son Manassah, who was described as being the most vile of all the kings of the earth, and yet after many, many years of cruelty and wickedness, the prayers of his old (then dead) father were answered, and he was brought to repentance. Services by Rev. J. Mahony, of the Central Protestant.

Wednesday meeting.—The lesson was by young Arrington, a law student, on faith,

Wednesday night.—Lesson: A young man prospered beyond precedent and yet not satisfied. Services by Rev. M. L. Wood, Presiding Elder of the Methodist church.

Thursday night.—The character of Joseph was set forth as a faithful man and stewart, showing the secret of his success to have been the fear and love of his God in his heart. Services by Rev. J. R. Ball, of the M. P. Church.

Thus far the weather has been very fine, and the attendance very full, showing great harmony with all denominations; and to add to the attractiveness, the singing has been of a soul-stirring nature, and many have commented on the topics of each day's lessons, showing great earnestness on the part of the association and of the community in assisting them in this great work. Every trade and profession in our midst is represented.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, Nov. 10.

The weather has been for some days quite disagreeable on account of cold rains, but since yesterday morning has been quite warm with sunshine.

The pretty weather on yesterday was taken advantage of by quite a number of villagers who want so hear a lecture from Judge Dick. The lecture came off in the Methodist Church at 3 p. m., the subject being "The Bible as Educator," on which the Judge, after first touching on the Sabbath as a day of rest, gave us a lecture of above an hour in length, remarkably handled, especially as concerns simpleness of style. The Judge by his humane and Christian like conduct has even among his political enemies many admirers in this section.

The Republicans of this place, and the Federal Court, now in session here, on last Friday evening held an enthusiastic mass meeting in commemoration of the New York elections. Cannons were fired, speeches made, and a general jubilee had, among those who figured prominently in the meeting were Judge Henry and Assistant District Attorney Hull. The bystanders as is the case on every such occasion were principally negroes.

No suits of any importance have as yet been tried in the Federal Court at this sitting. The whole time has been taken up in the disposition of trivial cases, of which there are quite a number on the docket, so many that the Judge, I understand, proposes continuing the Court after the expiration of the regular term.

Judge Grass passed through town on yesterday en route for home from the holding of the Court in the Western counties.

There is a meeting of the directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad to take place to-day, at which meeting I understand the Asheville depot is to be located.

The old scene of hog driving from Tennessee and Kentucky to South Carolina through this place is beginning to make its appearance again, several droves have gone through already.

Mr. David Vance, the eldest born of General Robert B. Vance, started today for South Carolina, where he expects to take to himself a young and pretty bride in the person of one Miss Catlett. He will return with her on next Saturday, when a rousing time will be had at the General's, Much joy and happiness wished the young couple.

The weather to-day is unusually warm for the season, and the drouth still continues, the oldest inhabitant scarcely ever remembering such.

Several persons sat up last night to see the shower of stars, etc., but have heard of none falling yet.

I learn that Mrs. Julia Campbell Wilborn, of High Point, died last night.

There has been quite a gathering here this week of the colored Good Templars of the State, amongst them Bishop Hood and other noted men in the church. What they did has not yet transpired.

To-morrow the State Sunday-School Convention meets here in annual session.

Mr. Mills has sent out some of his singing class, heading this way. When so near as High Point, it would be highly impolite to pass some other way, for there are some dollars around here that will find their way to Oxford, if they come to sing.

The railroad subscription fever is high, and that is greatly the talk now—election the 15th.

It is said that there are to be five other marriages here in the M. E. Church before the new year, the parties being known.

COR.

Investigating the Cause of the Late Steamship Collision.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.—Investigation into the causes of the Champion's disaster were resumed to-day. James Ferguson, first officer of the Lady Victoria, testified to having followed the sea ten years, during which time he had been mate of three vessels.

At 2 a. m., November 7th, he had charge of the Lady Octavia's deck, at which time she was sailing barely two and one-half knots per hour. "At 2:40 I walked forward and saw both of my lights burning brightly; and the lookout at his post then walked up on the poop, and in a few minutes noticed a green light on our port bow. Thinking it was a sailing vessel I took bearing of the light, which was North, Northeast. I finally saw with the aid of night glass that the vessel approaching had a masthead light that burned very dimly; and yet, in a few minutes later I discovered her red side light. The first light I saw was a green side light. I was standing to the weather side of the wheel, and in about three minutes after saw the green light and then saw the red light, the former being shut out entirely; and I made sure she was going astern. I saw the red light about two minutes. Said it must be a New York tug boat going to speak to us. I said this because I thought she was going around lee quarter. Then she shut out red light and showed his green again about three minutes. I saw the light first. She appeared to be sheering about. She was either badly steered or altering her course.

"When he shut out the red light and showed the green, I was almost certain there would be a collision, more or less; and before I had time to do anything he struck us on the end, little abaft the stern. When he struck us I was on the weather side of the wheel. It was a heavy shock, and caused me to stagger; and when I was going down off the poap I met the master, who ran forward on the fore castle head to see which vessel was most damaged. I looked over the bar, of course, and the first thing I saw was a steamship in actual contact with us. One of her anchors was lying on top of our stern, which had the appearance of a steamer to me. As I looked over I was confused to see a mass of casks and broken wood, and only heard one man cry for help. I left the fore-castle head at once, when order was given to lower the boat into the back yards and haul down the fore and aft sails at once, and all the hands were on deck, when the order was carried out. The master being in charge of the ship, gave orders for the carpenters to go below and see what damage the ship had sustained, at the same time despatching the ship's boat, which was in readiness to save lives from the sinking steamer—at the same time not knowing whether our own ship would float or not. On going below we found the bows in between the decks stove in, and the ship cut down under water three feet on the port side. The water in tight bulk heads prevented the ship from foundering. The captain consulted with the second mate and myself, and we decided to return to the breakwater rather than to proceed to New York in our crippled ship. Ferguson was plied with questions by the members of the court, but insisted that he had no time to get out of the steamers way, after seeing the green light the second time, and scarcely half a minute elapsed after this before the collision occurred. In all the ten minutes passed between the first seeing of the green light and the collision. The night was dark but the atmosphere was clear. The inquiry will be resumed to-morrow.

Turkeys for Thanksgiving.

As Thanksgiving Day approaches the price of turkeys rise. There is every prospect of a good supply of turkeys, but, should the weather continue like the present, the majority of these birds, which are reared on Western farms, would sweat after being killed, and arrive in the city in a state unfit for use. It is necessary in most cases to kill the birds fully a week before they arrive in New York, and to do this successfully the weather should be quite cold. Half a million turkeys are necessary for that market, which lasts three days before Thanksgiving Day. If frosts set in before the fifth of November turkeys will be cheap.

GRANT IN CHICAGO.

OVATION ACCORDED HIM BY THE ARMY OF TENNESSEE.

The Mayor's Speech of Welcome---Comparing Him to Washington---A Monster Procession.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 12.—This morning, which had long been looked for as the inauguration day of unusual festivities attending the annual meeting of the Army of the Tennessee, opened with a dull sky, and up to 8 o'clock the rain fell in brisk showers. Toward 9 o'clock, however, the sky became brighter and the sun came out at times, making the prospect more favorable for the procession and for decorating. At 10 o'clock the Army of the Tennessee began its annual meeting at the headquarters in the Palmer House. General W. T. Sherman presided. General William E. Strong informed the 450 members present that they were to act as a guard of honor to General Grant, and to follow him when he left the line of the procession. Owing to the short time left for arrangements, the business meeting was adjourned until four o'clock and the rest of the session was taken up in arranging the details of the procession. The principal feature of the day was the reception of General Grant by the citizens of Chicago and the Army of the Tennessee.

In this reception all classes participated, so that the affair was devoid of political significance. This was distinctly understood before the Democrats and the Illinois National Guard would consent to take part. The streets along the line of march were profusely decorated with emblems of welcome and of congratulation. The newspaper offices generally were decorated with flags, bunting and evergreens. The theatres were also noticeably artistic, and scarcely a building along the line of march lacked some sort of decoration.

PROCESSION IN HONOR OF GENERAL GRANT.

The train from Galena, containing General Grant, arrived at Park Row, on the south side, promptly at 1 o'clock. At this time the rain was falling heavily, but in a few minutes the clouds lifted and the sun shone brightly. General Grant alighted with his party from the special car of President Ackerman, of the Illinois Central Railroad, and took a seat in the carriage provided for him. The procession at once moved on.

THE LINE OF MARCH.

The procession moved from Park Row north through Michigan avenue to Washington street, thence through State to Lake, thence through Clark to Washington, thence through Franklin to Monroe, thence through La Salle to Madison, thence through Dearborn to Adams, thence through Clark to Van Buren, thence through State to Madison, and thence through Wabash avenue until dismissed. General Grant left the procession at the Palmer House, and reviewed it from a temporary balcony. The procession was of such length as to require over two hours to pass a given point. There was a dense and appreciative crowd along the whole line of march which cheered the notable members and organizations of the procession, but gave their loudest applause to Generals Grant, Sherman and Sheridan.

GRANT WELCOMED WITH PLAIN SPEECH

After the review General Grant was formally welcomed by Mayor Harrison, who spoke in the rotunda of the Palmer House. The Mayor welcomed him as one of the most renowned of American citizens, whose journey around the world had been watched with feelings of gratification that his passport was simply that of an American citizen. He alluded to the services of General Grant during the late war, to his generosity toward General Lee and to his elevation to the Presidency. He said:

Sir, you have served your country nobly, and the country has honored you grandly. Like the immortal Washington, you rose from the lower walks of life, passed through all the military grades until you commanded its victorious armies. Like him, you filled the office of President two long terms, and when the two terms were over, you, like him, were offered a crown, but preferred immortality and fame to temporal power. He returned to private life and lives in the hearts of the people, who, for all time, will call him his Country's Father.

Sir, In the name of Chicago and its people, I prophesy that when time shall have grown old, when the page of history shall become dim by the side of the great examplar who has gone before, your name and statue will be placed—by the side of Washington, and Jefferson, and Jackson, and the immortal Lincoln will live the name of Grant."

The speech was applauded heartily.

THE GENERAL'S REPLY.

General Grant, in reply, said:

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Committee of Reception of Chicago, gentlemen of Chicago and Illinois—I feel very much honored by the welcome which I am receiving at your hands to-day. I feel highly honored by the pledge of welcome which has been uttered by your worthy Mayor, which is something so personal to myself it would be hardly in good taste for me to respond to the language of it; and it leaves therefore nothing for me to do but thank this city for the hearty reception which they have given me. To one allusion of my reception abroad I will say that in every case I felt that it was a tribute to our own country. I will add further that our country stands differently abroad in the estimation of European and Eastern nations from what it did a quarter of a century ago. At that time it was believed we had no nation; it was merely a confederation of States, tied together by a rope of sand, and would give way upon the slightest friction. They have found it was a grand mistake. They know that we have now a nation; that we are a nation of strong and intelligent and brave people, capable of judging and knowing our rights, and determined on all occasions to maintain them against either a domestic or foreign foe; and that is the reception you, as a nation, have received through me while I was abroad.

THE RECEPTION AT HAVERLY'S THEATRE.

The reception given by the Society of the Army of the Tennessee to General Grant took place this evening at Haverly's Theatra. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with flags, festoons of flowers and wreaths. On either side of the stage was the inscription in evergreens, "Welcome to the Society of the "Army of the Tennessee," and above the centre of the stage was, "Welcome Commander." There was also upon the stake a representation of the a representation of the battle ground back of Vicksburg in charge of boys in blue, who guarded the approaches, doing regular sentry duty. The ground was strewd with munitions of war, fascines, etc. The were also arranged on each side of the stage and facing the audience life size portraits of President Lincoln and General Thomas. High above all the large banners were inscribed the names of the battle fields with which the Army of the Tennessee are so well acquainted. Loesche's military band supplied the music. The immense building was crowded with an audience which, upon the arrival of General Grant and staff, broke into hearty applause. Upon the stage were seated many of his prominent officers, including Generals Sherman and Sheridan. Governor Cullom, Mayor Harrison and other dignitaries were also present Rev. Dr. Thomas opened the exercises with prayer.

SINGULAR FATALITY.

Five of a Family Die from a Disease Known as Black Tongue.

London (Ont.) Free Press.

A great deal of anxiety has been aroused in the townships of Lobo, West Williams and London over the outbreak of a disease which seems to be of a very dangerous character, and beyond the control of physicians. Persons who have been attacked with it first experience a sensation of pain in the stomach, which gradually settles in the throat, with strong symptoms of diphtheria. As the disease progresses, the tongue of the sufferer becomes of a dark color, and from this fact it has been called the "Black Tongue." Up to the present it has proven most fatal in its results, and among the principal sufferers is Mr. Richard Weatherill, who lives about four miles from this city. During the holding of the Western Fair Mr. Weatherill acted as one of the judges and, together with his entire family, was in the city apparently in good health.

Since that time this dreadful disease has entered his home and robbed it of five children—two estimable daughters and his three youngest sons. Two daughters are at present ill with the affection, but it is hoped will recover, as they are in a very favorable condition. At the outbreak of the disease, the communication of which is a mystery, Drs. Hanson and Hanott, of London township, were summoned, and they in turn called in Dr. Moore, of this city; but without succeeding in checking the strange disease. From other parts of the county news has been received of cases of a similar character, but Mr. Weatherill's affliction is the saddest yet heard of. In his bereavement he has the warmest sympathy of the entire community, among whom the family were highly esteemed and widely known. It is to be hoped that the efforts of the medical men to find some specific for this epidemic will result successfully.

John Kelly and Mr. Bayard.

The statement from New York printed this morning, which makes a statement of John Kelly's mortification and purposed revenge because of Senator Bayard's alleged declination to accept an ovation at the hands of the Tammany democracy, must be based on erroneous information. At Wilmington on Tuesday night Senator Bayard stated to friends that the steamer on which he was a passenger arrived in New York several hours ahead of time; that, in consequence, there was no one at the dock except those usually employed there; that he took a carriage for the railway station immediately, and left for home without seeing any one. Therefore there could have been no opportunity for the tender of an ovation, or for a declination. Concerning the second part of the statement, to the effect that Mr. Kelly has invited a conference of leading Democrats to meet in New Ycrk, including various prominent Senators, it is decidedly doubtful whether Democratic Senators would think it expedient at this time to participate in any such conference as is suggested.

Mr. Voohiss, of New Jersey.

For some days past it has been rumored here that Representative Voorhis, of New Jersey, contemplated resigning his seat in the House. Mr. Voorhis has fallen into great financial and business embarrassment. Charges of embezzlement of the funds of one of the New Jersey banks, of which Mr. Voorhis was president, as has been stated, culminated in his arrest As Jersey justice is proverbially swift. Mr. Voorhis may before long be in a position where his compulsory withdrawal from the House may be necessitated. Mr. Voorhis, who is a Republican, was elected last fall from the Fifth New Jersey District in consequence of the division of the Democratic vote. The district is usually Democratic by about two thousand majority, and a Democrat would undoubtedly be elected if there was a vacancy. The importance which attaches to the matter in a political point of view is that a Democrat in his place would make a majority of the New Jersey delegation in the House Democratic, and would give the vote of that State to a Democrat in case the next election for President is thrown into the House of Representatives, and would make a majority of the State delegations Democratic. As there is so much at stake it is expected that all Republican influence available will be exerted to keep Mr. Voorhis in his seat.

Extremely Sad.

Goldsboro Mail.

Three children of Mr. C. C. Dail, who lives near this place, namely, Martha, aged about 13; James about 9, and Eddie, about 7, left home on Friday last to go to pick out cotton for Mr. D. A. Powell. On their way to the cotton fields they eat of the deathly nightshade berries. Dr. Cobb reached them at about nine o'clock Friday to find Martha's cross, and the two boys in a critical condition. James lingered until Sunday and died, while Eddie is recovering. Mr. Dail himself has been very ill with typhoid malaria for the last few weeks, and from what we can learn, is an object of sympathy and charity as well. He and family have our profound sympathy, and we express the hope that his immediate wants may be met by the kindness and generosity of benevolent friends.

What They Say.

Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., certifies of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure: "I do not doubt that it has great virtue." Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Secretary of Howard University, certifies that for Bright's disease "no other remedy can be held for one moment in comparison with this." E. W. Neff, of Detroit, Mich., certifies that it completely cured him of a very serious chronic liver complaint. J. H. Sherlock, of Rochester, N. Y., certifies that it cured him of Bright's disease of several years' standing, and that he believes it to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. These are samples of hundreds of other testimonials.

Senator Thurman's Successor.

Ex-Governor Dennison says that Judge Taft, Judge Matthews, Mr. Garfield and himself are the only Senatorial candidates to succeed Senator Thurman, and he knows that Secretary Sherman and Mr. Foster are not candidates.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT.

WHAT SUNSET COX SAYS ABOUT HIM.

The Meaning of the New York Election---The Evisceration of Tildenism in Politics.

Boston Herald.

"I don't know as I have anything to say except what is in the papers," remarked Hon. Sunset Cox yesterday afternoon. "I suppose you want to know what significance the New York election has on the struggle for 1880. It means, if it means anything, the evisceration—if that is the unabridged word—of Tildenism. We want pure politics or none at all; we are tired of being bought, sold and traded at the shambles. Mr. Tilden operates only by mercenary means; he won't give any money to kill anybody but only to help himself. And he has become so suspicious that he will hardly consent to give Pelton any. Those immediately around him have not got his evidence. The campaign was entirely one of unpersonality. It was not for this man or for that, but deliberately against Tilden. We said, we'll support anybody but Tilden. It was time to revolt. We were insurgents, open insurgents, and we fought Tilden through Robinson. We wanted to

PURGE OURSELVES OF THE HYDRA.

Ben Hill said this year was a year of purgation, and it is. We have administered a strong purgative in New York and it has abundantly acted. Tilden is dead as far as next year is concerned. He did his best to get control of the machinery, got appointed his commissioners so that he should have the supervisors and the like, but we have elected the board of aldermen and so stopped that. Next year, when all the state issues are out of the way—they are a little puzzling to outsiders—"

"Yes, I see. Mr. Bayard says this morning in an interview, that no one outside the State can understand New York politics."

"Bayard understands them, understands them thoroughly. He only said that to escape an expression of opinion on the question."

"Do you think Mr. Bayard has a good chance for the nomination?"

"Well, Bayard has a great deal of strenth here in the East. I should think he was the leading favorite in this section. A certain class of men in New York will vote for him, and some portions of the South. But the West is opposed to him, and he has not an imposing following except where his finance is not understood. Hendricks has some show; He had a good vote at St. Louis; he received the votes of the New York city delegation. In certain contingences Hancock will be the man. I have received letters from all parts of the South and West, urging me to go and talk over matters with Kelly, and arrange the candidate. There is, you see, no following for Tilden. Why, we shall get into line in New York, next year, and carry the State by 25,000.

NO MATTER WHO IS THE NOMINEE,

and Tilden and his followers had better join, for we will win, whether or no. I see that certain politicians in Washington are angry about the bolt in New York. But it is absurd. Tilden has to-day no following in the United States Congress. He had Barnum a mercenary, but he is gone. For that matter, no more has Bayard any particular showing. For he was often in a minority in his party in many things last session, if his record is looked up, though he was right about the riders to the appropriation bills. We fought these together."

"I think I've heard or read that there was some talk of reading you out of the party for your stand in the New York election?"

"Yes, they have said so, called me a Judas and other pet names of significance. But you cant throw the hickories out of the woods. Even Randall came over to brooklyn and denounced Reilly and myself, when it was Reilly's one vote that elected Randall to the speakership. I don't see as I shall lose my place in the party. I am all right in my district All good politicians are," and the speaker allowed the regular sunset smile to play soltly round the corners of his mouth. "I see you publish an interview with Kelly this morning. It is very good and true to him. I have known him since I sat with him in Congress, twenty-three years ago. He was then a big-headed Irishman, and I was almost a boy. Our friendship has been quite a romance. You described him accurately. He has an indomitable will. He is a man utterly incorruptible and of intense purpose in politics. And, when we get the party wrenched back into its place—"

"It is a pity you cannot come here and wrench

THE MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATS A LITTLE."

"Oh, they don't know anything here. They never did. They go in for the greatest good for the fewest number. The rest of the country elects, and up in Massachusetts comes in and claims all the offices. Some of these old men call themselves regulars, though they have no followers. They are regulars—regularly whipped on every occasion. But they will be in line next year. If I had been here in Massachusetts I don't know how I should have voted. I don't say I would have opposed Butler for they say he had the support of the working classes. I see he made a statement the other day about the redistribution of congressional seats, but he was not correct. I am chairman of the committee, and the returns of the census, which will be made next June, will be sent into the Congress that meets a year from next December, so the members elected on the redistribution can't take their seats until 1881, so it will have no effect on the national struggle. But it makes no difference now, Butler is not elected,"

"No; and he never can be in Massachusetts, for reasons you readily understand."

"Oh, perfectly. I looked him in the eyes for years."

"Do you remain here long?"

"A week; and then I have two weeks in New Hampshire with the 'Poetry of Mechanism.' I am at Salem tonight."

The little figure bowed politely and moved slowly off in the twilight in the direction of the City of Witches.

Got Out Doors.

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

It is understood that Mr. Hayes' message will be devoted largely to the question of civil service reform.

GENERAL GRANT tells an interviewer that the mention of this name for the Presidency is without his authority. And right there he stops.

CORNELL'S election cannot be looked upon as a Republican victory, but as the result of a temporary split in the New York Democracy. That State will be solid for the Democratic Presidential nominee next year.

THE announcement is made in behalf of Mr. John Kelly, that he proposes to be at the next Democratic National Convention. He will, in all probability, be dreadfully sat down upon, as a man whom the Democratic party in general despises; and all there will be left for him to do will be to go home and nominate himself for President. If he intends to lay the Democracy out cold, he can't afford to stop at his present insignificant achievements.

ABOUT this time as the old Farmer's Almanac says, look out for the end of the world. According to certain Adventist of New York and Brooklyn, this interesting event is down on the bills for this week. There is not entire agreement as to the hour for the ceremony; some figured out that it would take place yesterday, others have it down for to-day, while still a third set postpone the event till to-morrow. It is only fair to add, however, that it is only a section of the Adventist who are in the present movement the great bulk of the "regulars" ridiculе the programme of these bolters.

LOUISIANA casts eight votes for President next year. The local Republicans say that if they get some assistance from first-class Northern speakers they can carry the State, having an unusually strong and respectable ticket. Eight votes removed from the Democratic column, according to the Republican arithmetic men, will render the triumph of the Democracy impossible. And yet not a first-class Republican speaker will go to Louisiana, Secretary Sherman's time is occupied with his annual report. Secretary McCrary is anxious concerning a Judgeship; Attorney-General Devens has a job of the same kind on hand; Secretary Evarts is looking after bimetalism and full trade; Secretary Thompson could not think of dropping his anchor (with a yo-heave-be) at the mouth of a river which rebelliously and traiterously refused to float his school-ship up to St. Louis; Postmaster-General Key's invitation has miscarried because it was addressed to Washington, "D. C.," and in this era of civil service reform it is impossible to raise at the New Orleans Custom House $300 and expenses wherewith to secure Secretary Schurz for one night only. Thus the Republicans allow the Presidency to slip out of their hands and the solid South to remain unbroken!

Albermarle Fair.

Albemarle Enquirer.

The attendance on the third day numbered about 1,000, persons. At an early hour in the morning Col. L. L. Polk was introduced by J. H. Sawyer, a young and talented lawyer of this place. The Colonel speech occupied two and a half hours in its delivery, and was of such an interesting nature as to claim the attention of his hearers to its close.

The trotting on this day was opened to gentlemen's roadsters and was won by Charlie, owned by Mr. Clarence Cartright,

Among the amusing features of the Fair was a slow mule race, which attracted a lively interest especially among the juvenile portion of the crowd. The Fair as a whole was a success, but as we have remarked before there is room for improvement.

The coronet band gives concerts an Friday nights, to which the public are invited. Wendesday night there will be a temperance meeting at the Court House. Rev, B. B. Williams is expected to deliver the address, before the Good Templars of this place.

Chills and fevers with pneumonia are prevailing in our midst keeping our doctors quite busy.

The Fair hop come off on the night of the third and was much enjoyed by the young folks.

A Cause of Senator Chandler's Death.

The Baltimore Gazette (Dem.) relates this story to account for a train of causes that ultimated in the death of Senator Chandler:

"There is every reason to believe that Col. John Hay, author of 'Little Breeches' and other worthless poems, was the immediate cause of Zach Chandler's death. Mr. Chandler, during the campaign in Ohio, made a great speech to 25,000 people at Warren in the afternoon, and then hurried up to Cleveland to make a night speech. His train was late. He was hurried from the depot to a hotel, where he bolted a hearty lunch. From there he was taken to the outdoor meeting. When he reached the stand he was perspiring freely. Taking off his overcoat and removing his hat, he stood in the chill night air while Mr. Hay, who is a consummate snob, advertised himself for twenty minutes in introducing a man so well known to the crowd that even the dogs would'nt bark at him. Mr. Chandler started in to speak, but grew hoarse and broke down before the end was reached. He never saw a well day after that. His chill and the boited lunch brought on the attack of indigestion from which he never recovered, and John Hay stands before the public as the man who held Zachariah Chandler's nozzle against a northwest wind for twenty minutes, thereby killing him, in order that his own vanity might be gratified. Moral—Cut the introductory short."

Some Postage Stamps.

Third assistant Postmaster General Hazen, in his annual report, treats of postage stamps, dead letters, etc. The receipts of his department were $768,466 more than those of the proceeding year, owing, as he says, to the revival of trade. There were issued during the last fiscal year 774,000,000 stamps, of the face value of $20,117,259; 221,797 postal cards and 148,000,000 stamped envelopes, valued at $4,300,000. The total issues of all kinds valued at $29,300,500. The Dead Letter Office disposed of 2,996,513 packages and letters. 13,755 of them contained drafts and checks to the amount of $1,100,000, ond 64,000 to the aggreate value of $34,000.

Conkling as a Ladies' Lion.

Senator Conkling made his first public appearance in Washington since the shot-gun episode at Canonchet, in the Supreme Court of the United States Wednesday last. On the announcement in the Post that he would argue a case there a large attendance of curious gazers had gathered at the opening of the court. The majority of these were ladies, who pointed the hero out to each other and scanned his appearance and every movement eagerly. He was dressed in a black suit and sported a bright blue cravat, which rather ill-became his somewhat washed-out look. His old trick of investigating the cavernous depths of his nasal organ with his fingers was indulged in to a positively disgusting extent, and seemed to form the subject of surprised and indignant notice by the ladies, who sat within a few feet of him.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Items and Extracts From the State Press.

The Winston Leader says: The brick masons completed their work on Brown & Carter's new Opera House last Saturday. The carpenters will now take charge and we may expect to see one of the handsomest buildings in North Carolina completed in a few weeks.

Winston is determined not to be left in the rear by other enterprising cities, and will, it is probable, in the near future have lock boxes in her post office. Postmaster Walker is making a move in that direction.

Colonel A. H. Belo and family are visiting his father in Salem. The Colnel is editor and proprietor of the Galveston, Texas News.

Tarborough Southerner: The Pamlico Insurance and Banking Company will commence soon the banking business in Tarboro. Ten per cent. has been asked of stockholders on capital stock. They have never put this feature of their charter into play, having contined their operations to insurance. It will be a great convenience to business men.

Wilmington Star: We learn that diphtheria is prevailing to some extent in that part of the city north of the W. & W. Railroad.

Chatham Record: Mr. William Fike of this county died last week nearly eighty years old. Only a few weeks ago a younger brother, Elijah Fike, died, aged about seventy years. In this family were seven brothers and two sisters, the youngest being about sixty years old; and all nine being alive until the death of Elijah. Think of nine brothers and sisters all living and the youngest being sixty years old! Only one member of the family has ever married, all the others preferring a life of "single blessedness." Two or three of the brothers are the tallest men in the county, each being nearly seven feet high. They are all men of temperate habits and are some of our best citizens.

Greensboro Beacon: On election day a huge barbecue will be prepared for all the citizens of Morehead and Gilmer townships, irrespective of race or politics, to which all are cordially invited.

The roast beef, mutton, pork, &c., must be eaten, and the railroad mast be built.

Public speaking may be expected.

Edenton Clarion: On Wednesday night, at the court house, a temperance lecture was delivered by Rev. A. D. Cohen, district deputy of the I. O. G. T. Although the crowd in attendance was small, yet the address seemed to meet with appreciation at the hands of those present.

North State Press: Rough rice is becoming quite an item with our farmers, and as the crops this year have been good, with the high prices that are being paid, it will help the pockets of many of our depressed people. For the past week a lively trade nas been kept up in this article, the price ranging from 90 cents upward. Bring all your produce to Washington, and we guarantee as good figures as any other market.

Shelby Aurora: Cleaveland county has produced the mammoth gourd. It measures 6 feet 3 inches in circumference.

Greensboro Patriot: Since our last issue, more Texas emigrants have gone on to join those reported by us last week. As they pass through here a politician finds out what counties they are from, their politics, etc. He is a Republican, and is watching the corks for next year's election in this State.

A little boy at Jamestown, had his hands blown all to pieces Sunday, by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge which he was handling. Our informant says that Sunday morning the unfortunate little boy, in playing around one of the mines in that vicinity, picked up the cartridge, put it in his pocket and carried it home. There he took it out and began to pick it, when it exploded, with the result mentioned above. The boy is about ten years of age, and his father's name is Holder. There is but one physician in the place, and he was unable to treat the case without assistance. Up to press hour, we have been unable to learn any additional particulars of this truly shocking affair.

Dropped Dead.

New Berne Nut Shell.

Yesterday afternoon a colored man named Bryan Stopped at the house of Thama Williams, a colored woman who resided on Cypress, near George street, and found her dead body lying on the floor. She had been slightly indisposed for some time, but on yesterday was up and doing her work. She had been frothing constantly at the mouth, and appeared to have died in great agony. There was some whispering around town about poison in connection with the sudden death, but whether there was any ground for it or not, we cannot say. It is our opinion, however, that it was simply a case of death from heart disease, and that lovers of the mysterious will suffer a sore disappointment when the facts are brought out. Thama Williams was about forty years of age and lived alone, not being a woman of family.

An inquest was held over the body of Thama Williams, the colored woman who dropped dead in her house, in this city Wednesday afternoon, and the verdict of the jury was, "death from heart disease."

No Reason Why.

Tarboro Southerner.

There is no reason why, with so small a cost, the people of North Carolina should not erect cotton factories in every cotton producing county in the State. This would give employment to the poor people and cause the now dark cloud of poverty and dispair to disappear, to be followed by the bright sunlight of prosperity and happiness. Cotton goods can be manufactured cheaper and more profitably in the South, where the cotton is raised, than it can be transported to the North and there manufactured and sent back and sold to the very people who first raised it. The cotton mills of Georgia prove this to be a truism.

Ben's Elasticity.

Tarboro Southerner.

After being beaten again for Governor of Massachusetts, Ben Butler is said to have jumped up, cracked his heels together three times and announced himself again a candidate. There's elasticity for you.

A Planet Discovered.

The Smithsonian Institution has received from Professor Peters, of Clinton, the announcement of the discovery by himself on the 12th of November, 1879, of a planet of the eleventh magnitude in one hour nine minutes ten seconds right ascension, twelve degrees twenty minutes north declination, with a daily motion of three minutes south.

GRANT AND CHANDLER.

The Little Difference They Had Over Chandler's Defiance of the Law.

In a conversation about the dead Senator, recently, ex-Senator Ramsey, of Minnesota, alluded to the animosity that had for awhile existed between Zach Chandler and Ulysses S. Grant. When Grant was a lieutenant in the army his station was for awhile in the old fort near Detroit. When Grant was in command of the post, a board walk connected the fort with the city, about a mile distant, and as it fronted the property owned by Chandler, Lieut. Grant insisted that it was Chandler's duty to keep his sidewalks clear of snow in winter, so that pedestrians could use them. Mr. Chandler paid no attention to this subaltern's request, so Lieut. Grant had old Zach arrested and brought before the municipal court of Detroit for a violation of the city ordinance, and the impression is that Grant had Chandler foul on both the law and the evidence. At all events, Chandler nourished very bitter feelings against Grant, and no words ever passed between them until during the war. General Grant, while in command of the armies of the Union, happened to meet the Michigan Senator, when salutations followed, and the friendship between them afterwards ripened into mutual affection and esteem.

A Sort of Dog Fight.

Winston Leader.

It is a palpable fact that what is termed politics in this country is chiefly the science of party conflicts. A sort of dog fight between the ins and outs.

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof. Green, Dr. Bartine, Col. John K. McChesny, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe, Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

VEGETINE

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER

SUFFERED 25 YEARS.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

LUNG DISEASE.

SELMA, ALA., May 12, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
CELEBRATED
FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

MASSACRED BY SAVAGES.

Over Two Hundred Whites Killed by Indians in Northern Mexico.

A desperate fight took place on the 10th instant at the Candelaria Mountain, fifty miles south of El Paso, Tex., in the State of Chihuaha, Mexico, between a large band of Indians, numbering about two hundred and a party of fifty men from Cariza, New Mexico. Thirty-two of the latter were killed and eighteen escaped wounded. The Indians are the same party that Major Morrow was after. They came from the Florida Mountains by way of Glossman's Lake to the Candelaria mountains, where the party in pursuit of them were surprised by the Indians concealed behind rocks. The fight lasted all day.

During the past six weeks these Indians have killed more than two hundred persons.

Almost Young Again.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over seventy years old. Cuticura

FROM THE HON. WM. TAYLOR, STATE SENATOR OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings, but it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every sense of the word. I have been a great sufferer with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years. My head and face being covered with sores, I could not rest with the burning heat and itching of the parts affected, and was confined to my house for weeks at a time. My disease has been called Eczema, of a most aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt if ever fully understood by any of them. It was more like a combination of several skin humors. I have spent much money seeking a cure, and in 1867 I went to Europe, and consulted some of the best physicians in London. I received temporary relief only, for in the spring it would break out again as bad as ever. When I came back to Boston, I was told by many friends that Dr. —— (whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was of the highest order) could cure me. I waited on the doctor; he prescribed for me. I followed his advice for six months, and I can safely say, without any improvement. I tried other physicians and among them Dr. ——, of East Boston, and Dr. ——, of city proper, but all to no purpose. They did me no good; their remedies were so ineffectual that at no time did I feel that a cure would result from them.

I have swallowed five hundred arsenic pills, 5-20 grain, and taken bottle after bottle of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, but the effect was the same. I became satisfied that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse.

Now, about three months ago, Mr. Meehan, a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTICURA, and promised wonderful results if I would only make a trial. He told me of his own experience with it, and so persevered on me that I went with him to a drug store and bought two large boxes of CUTICURA, and some CUTICURA SOAP, and commenced to use it according to the directions. There was so much humor lodged within the skin, that as soon as I commenced the use of CUTICURA it came to the surface and festered, until vast quantities had come out and greatly intensified my sufferings for about two weeks. But I did not mind this, as I felt that I was going to get rid of the humor when I saw it coming to the surface in such large quantities. After the first two or three weeks' use of this remedy, I was greatly encouraged by a gradual lessening of the inflammation of a number of painful sores. I carefully, faithfully, and cheerfully followed the directions to the letter, feeling each week nearer a cure, until at the present moment, after three months' use of CUTICURA, and twelve years of as constant suffering as was ever endured, I can say that I am cured, and pronounce my case the most remarkable on record. I have been so elated with my success that I have stopped men on the street who were afflicted, and told them to get the CUTICURA and it would cure them. This is why I am so grateful to you, for I believe it to be the best and greatest discovery of the age, and that it will cure all who are suffering with these diseases. I may add that I took no Internal medicine but the CUTICURA RESOLVENT.

PREVENTIVE OF

Malarial Diseases

Opinion of Eminent Dr, H. R. Walton, Annapolis, Md.

Golden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is har excellence. Superior to od Liver Oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions, and extremely beneficial as a preventive of Malarial diseases.

Index to New Advertisements.

ALFRED WILLIAMS—Local notice.
WAYNE ALLCOTT—Booming.
R. B. ANDREWS & Co—Local notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Hot.

——Unwholesome weather.

——Revenue receipts $1,208.46.

——Very busy day yesterday.

——Indian summer, number two.

——Hon. T. L. Clingman is at the Yarboro.

——Pedestrianism is now called the foot distemper.

——Gov. Jarvis has returned from the Fayetteville Fair.

——J. A. Thomas, of the Franklin Times, paid us a call yesterday.

——People pick their teeth, and yet they do not all get good ones.

——Col. William Johnston, of Charlotte, was in the city yesterday.

——Barbecue in Greensboro to-day. A number of our citizens will be there.

——No meteoric showers yet; and there were lots of sleepy people to be seen yesterday.

——The last will and testament of Margaret Barringer was yesterday admitted to probate.

——Colonel Thomas M. Holt, President of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, is in the city.

——The oldest inhabitant never before experienced such weather as this in the month of November.

——Roller skating last night at Dodd's hall. A large crowd was present, and everybody enjoyed themselves.

——The Baltimore Plow Company, and Peimmer & Bro., of Baltimore, took out drummers' licenses yesterday.

——Hornethal & Dicker, and Hurst, Purcell & Co., both Baltimore houses, have taken out drummers' licenses.

——Maj. J. P. H. Russ was again stricken with paralysis on yesterday and at a late hour last night was very ill.

——Sheriff Nowell and Register White have bought and donated to the colored people's fair, one of Kelly's Cotton Planters.

——Col. I. J. Young, has returned home. He has been in Fayetteville for several days past attending the Cumberland Fair.

——Sheriff Franks, of Swain county, has deposited into the State Treasury $664.45. Mr. Franks is the first sheriff who has settled.

——The law firm of Merrimon & Fuller have moved their offices to the old Sion Rogers' suite of offices on south Fayetteville street, and a nice set of offices they are.

——O for a thousand tongues to—yell into the ears of our Board of Aldermen until they devise and execute some means of laying the dust on Fayetteville street before our eyes are put out. Phew!

——Wilmington and Martin streets were so crowded yesterday with wagons loaded down with cotton and produce, that a policeman was kept busy making an opening or pass-way. So much for a fair price for cotton.

——The fluctuations in cotton on yesterday were again very heavy. New York seems wild with speculation, advancing and declining ten to thirty-five points at a time. Our market opened at 11¼, and closed at 11½. Some sales at 11⅝.

——Thomas Donaldson will have nice, fine and fat mountain beef on sale at his stall No. 3, in the market, this morning. If you want good beef, hunt him up; you'll like the beef, and the man is accommodating. It is said to be the finest exposed for sale here in some time.

——Pastors will be kind enough to send in their church notices this morning. It is impossible for us to keep up a correct church directory unless the pastors of the various churches furnish us with the hours of service, etc. Unless this is done we shall discontinue the directory altogether and only publish those that are sent us.

——A very large runaway last evening. A mule hitched to a dray was left standing in front of the NEWS office—but he doesn't stand there any more. He thought he saw a meteoric shower coming and lit out down the street in the direction of Fayetteville, which place he is expected to reach in time to enter for the running match to-day at the fair. He's warranted the fastest this season.

——We have a new poet, or poet-aster—just as you please gentle reader—in town. They say he's "boss" on writing love taffy—so used to giving it, you understand. Here is his latest production:

Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts that bill and coo;
He said: "I am oor sugar plum,
Whose sugar plum is oo?"

C. T. A.

——The Winston Leader wants to get hold of that printer on the Raleigh NEWS who continually spells Forsyth with an "e." "We want to shake him right good and set him down 'e'—asy." Oh, dont do that! Well, now, you'd have to put up a pretty grand shake indeed. It's our private opinion publicly expressed that you don't mean quite all you say anyway. Now, say mister, do you really?

——More sleepy people in town yesterday than ever before. If Prof. Tice could have been found by some of the irate people whom we encountered, he would have suffered, we know. No meteoric shower; the world has not come to an end. People seem to be mad because the world didn't end. For our part we are rather taken with the idea that—ah, that it is our privilege to announce to an anxious, dear, people that the world has not ended yet.

——Going to have two first-class theatres here next week, and don't you forget it. "Unknown" on Thursday night. The New York Herald says of it: "The best play of recent times." The Rentz—Stanley Co. present a burlesque on Pinafore at Tucker Hall on Friday night. Now you speak of "boss" shows, but this is certainly regarded as one of the very best companies traveling. Of course, everybody is going. Beats Pinafore, itself, they say; and every one who ever witnessed Pinafore, should go and see, an I enjoy—as they undoubtedly would—this burlesque Pinafore. Give both companies rousing houses.

Machinery.

It gives us pleasure to call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Mr. Wayne Allcott, manufacturer's agent for the sale of all kinds of machinery. He makes quite an attractive announcement this morning, the special offer of that old, reliable house of C. Aultman & Co., Canton, O. The very liberal offer will no doubt be taken advantage of by those in need of such machinery as they manufacture. We understand they give some of the most liberal terms of any manufactory selling machinery through this section. Not only this; but their machinery is strictly first-class, and has taken premiums at all the fairs in the United States wherever exhibited.

Friend Allcott is taking great interest in the sale of machinery, and seems determined to handle only the very best. We learn from him that the prospect of sales the coming year are unusually cheering, that he is daily receiving inquiries, and a great many are making definite arrangements for engines and different kinds of machinery.

But we could hardly expect anything else from Mr Allcott, as he is a man of unusual energy and perseverence and one of the most liberal advertisers in our city.

We notice his large machinery warehouse is well filled with sample machinery, also that he is doing a very large general produce commission business. He seems to win the confidence of all that have business transactions with him.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board met, pursuant to adjournment. Quorum present, Mayor Manly presiding.

The police force, as at present constituted, were elected for the balance of the current year.

A petition from the butchers, asking that the market be closed at 7 o'clock P. M. daily, except on Saturday nights, when it shall be closed at 11 o'clock, was granted.

The Street Commissioner was ordered to furnish the Street Committee with an estimate of the probable amount necessary to run his department for the balance of the year.

Petition for a lamp at the corner of Blount and Newbern avenue, was referred to the Light Committee, with power to act.

Adjourned.

Conkling Should Bring Up the Rear

New York Evening Post, (Republican.)

Is it not about time that the chief engineer of the machine removed his hand from the lever? If Mr. Conkling is half so shrewd a politician as his friends report him to be, he can scarcely help seeing that the present time is an excellent opportunity for him to go to the rear for a while and maintain there a judicious reserve. If he does not see it, it behooves other leaders not to be blind to the truth. Thousands of Republicans voted the regular Saratoga ticket under protest. Thousands more refused to vote at all, not because they did not care for the success of their party, but because they felt Conklingism to be intolerable to themselves and because they believed it to be injurious to their party, if not indeed destructive of it.

Remarkable Escape from Death.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 12.—A miraculous escape from death occurred at the Stanton shaft this afternoon. John McMahon was ascending the shaft when a truck weighing eighteen hundred pounds fell from the top, a distance of over six hundred feet, striking the carriage on which he stood, driving it through a wooden partition. The truck and carriage were utterly demolished, but McMahon emerged from the wreck with a few bruises and one arm disabled. He then climbed the ladder, six hundred feet, having but one arm to aid him, and gained the top. Nothing like it has ever been known in the coal regions.

An Event to Occur in New Orleans.

It is well known to everybody that the foremost warriors in the Confederate Army, Generals G. T. Beauregard and Jubal A. Early, are called to meet in that city at an early date to arrange the tickets, etc., for the extraordinary grand distribution of the Louisiana State Lottery, which occurs on December 16th, under the sole supervision of these men who deservedly enjoy the popular confidence. Over half a million of dollars will be distributed, and any one anxious to try their luck should write to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y.

Mrs. Senator Davis Dead.

The wife of Senrtor David Davis, of Illinois, died at Stockbridge, in that State, on Monday.

Charlotte Observer: The Union county negro child that acts and looks for all the world like a frog, was brought up yesterday and put on exhibion at Centennial Hall, and attracted a considerable crowd of colored people.

Some talk and dissatisfaction has been caused by an order from the Richmond and Danville Railroad prohibiting other railroads from trucking cotton across portions of the cotton platform that belongs to that company, and also forbidding the cotton weigher from rolling his scales over the same for the purpose of weighing cotton. In the case of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad for instance, the shipper is subjected to the expense and trouble of having it drayed from one platform to another to have it weighed. There is some talk of applying to the Board of aldermen, by way of retaliation, for the opening of the street which cuts the platform. The other roads have submitted quietly to the order but the shippers are kicking,

Wilmington Star: We noticed a poor unfortunate colored man on the streets yesterday, one of whose legs was drawn half way up the body, and the other turned completely around, the foot projecting back instead of in front of the person.

Pompey Sneed and Wm. Small, alias Smoky Bill, two colored individuals, were arraigned before Justice Gardner on the charge of stealing a boat, the property of David Slatcher colored, on Tuesday night last. The defendants were ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 each for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which they were sent to the Hotel de Howard.

A Great Discovery by a Great Man.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Neuralgine.

This is not A KING CURE-ALL. But is only good for Neuralgia and Headache. For these troubles it is the only specific known. Sold by all the leading druggists. tf.

Each of Warner's Safe Remedies—the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, Safe Pills, Safe Nervine, and Safe Bitters, is asserted to be the best of its class, and the intention is to keep it so. If any medical expert can add an ingredient which will improve any one of them, he will be paid a high price for the improvement. *

Consumpton Cured.

An old physicl h retired from practice had placed in his rands by an East Indian missionrry the fomula of a simple vegetable remedy, for th speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated to this motive, I will send free of charge, to anywho desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. Sent by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Shearar, WPowers Block, Rochester, N. Y. 6aeow7m.

Rosadalis'

THE GREAT SOUTHERN remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scrofulous Taint, Rheumatism, White Swelling Gout, Goitre, Consumption, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the Blood.

The merits of this valuable preparation are so well known that a passing notice is but necessary to remind the readers of this journal of the necessity of always having a bottle of this medicine among their stock of family necessities.

Certificates can be presented from many leading Physicians Minister, and heads of families throughout the South, endorsing in the highest terms The Fluid Extract of Rosadalis.

DR. R. WILLIAM CARR, of Baltimore says he has used it in cases of Scrofula and other diseases with much satisfaction.

DR. T. C. PEGH, of Baltimore, recommends it to all persons suffering with diseased Blood, saying it is superior to any preparation he has ever used.

REV DABNEY BALL, of the Baltimore M. E. Conference South, says he is so much benefited by its use that he cheerfully recommends it to all his friends and acquaintances.

CRAVEN & CO., Druggists, of Gordonsville, Va., says it never has failed to give satisfaction.

Samuel G. McFadden, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, says it cured him of Rheumatism when all else failed.

Rosadalis is not a secret quack preparation, its ingredients are published on every package. Show it to your Physician and h will tell you it is composed of the strongest alteratives that exist, and is an excellent blood purifier. Did our space admit we could give you testimonials from every State in the South and from persons known to every man, woman and child either personally or by reputation.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.
